

Revelation Youth Workshop

by Cody Hughes

There is no better way to start the New Year than with Bible prophecy. The Word of God has such a renewing (Romans 12:1-2) and refocusing effect. Revelation is no exception. It's so encouraging to know what is going to happen in the future. As we dove into the book of Revelation, we saw God's amazing plan and also His love, grace, mercy, and righteousness on full display. I am so encouraged by the fact that God desires to have a relationship with us and to inform us about the end times so we can have hope in the present. I can rest assured that everything I need to know is found in Scripture. God has truly blessed us through His amazing disclosure in the book of Revelation.

The conference that was held the first week of January was very refreshing. Not only did we have great teaching from Revelation, but we had great times of fellowship and worship. Many Christian songs are based off verses in Revelation. At the conference, it was amazing at times to end a session with a corresponding impromptu worship song. In addition, it was very encouraging to hear from the young adults at the evening prayer meetings and times of testimony.

It was a common assertion that previous to the conference, many attendees looked at the book of Revelation as unknowable and mysteriously eerie. But after learning that the child of God is not destined to enter the Tribulation (1 Thess. 1:10), everyone understood that the book of Revelation is not a message of doom, but rather a message of hope (Rev. 1:3). As God's children, we cannot wait to see our Savior in the air and for Him to establish His eternal kingdom on earth. Praise be to God! We look forward to finishing Revelation 12-22 in the future. That is, if the Rapture doesn't happen first.

I thank First Baptist Church of Combes, Texas for hosting this conference and also all those who helped to make it possible. Most of all, I thank God for allowing everyone to come and be a part of this life-changing event.

Youth workshop testimonies:

This conference was a wonderful blessing as we went through the first 11 chapters of Revelation. It was encouraging and humbling to interact with all those who attended, as they clearly had a love for the Lord. People came from all over the country and it was amazing to hear everyone's testimonies as well as to see the call for disciple making go out.

I loved going to this conference! I've learned so much in the past few days and my mind is just bursting with new-found knowledge that will help me serve the Lord so much better! It was also great to see all my friends again.
- Amber Westing

I couldn't have had a more perfect start to the year. This week I had the opportunity to spend time with some of the godliest people I know. These amazing people are so kind, wise, and loving, despite their youth. We spent hour after hour together, waking up early and listening to our fantastic teachers walk us through the first 11 chapters of Revelation. Despite long days, never once did I see anyone get angry or rude. We had nothing but fun, learning, and loving fellowship. I am so thankful for each and every one. - Rachel Shelton

PRAISE AND PRAYER:

- We are so thankful for all of you who keep up with DM2 news and pray for this work. Your prayers are vital, since it is God who works in hearts and lives.
- The recent DM2 workshops in South Texas and Costa Rica were both extremely encouraging. Young and old believers alike were greatly appreciative of the teaching, and numerous unbelievers in attendance placed their faith in Jesus Christ for salvation.
- Pray that through the DM2 workshops "the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified." 2 Thessalonians 3:1
- Also, pray for open doors and sufficient finances to continue to travel to distant and remote locations.
