Zambia Workshop (Romans 1-8)

LARRY DEPUE

They came from far and wide: from four different nations, from the island of Zanzibar, and from all over Zambia. There were over 120 pastors and church leaders representing 31 denominations.

At the beginning of the week, we passed out a questionnaire to help us get a feel for their understanding of the gospel. It became clear they were very uncertain about salvation and eternal security. So we dove into the book of Romans.

Paul, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, does a great job of proving we are all lost and in need of justification. After a brief introduction, he addresses the immoral sinner (Romans 1:18-32), the moral sinner (Romans 2:1-16), and the religious sinner (Romans 2:17-3:8). And the verdict is: ALL are without excuse. We are condemned before a just and holy God. The whole world is guilty (Romans 3: 9-20).

But there is hope! Romans 3:21-31 says God freely gave His Son to pay the debt of sin that we could not pay. So we are justified before God by believing in His Son. We cannot buy our salvation with our works, or maintain our salvation through our works. It is an act of grace on the part of God.

It seemed the large majority understood and accepted the truth of the Word of God. Please pray for these men:

- That, as they review the teaching, they will be convinced of the truths of Romans.
- That the truths taught will be passed on to faithful men and women who will teach others also.
- Pray for Pastor Joseph Chama, the main leader. We would like him to come to a workshop here in the US this November.
- Pray that God will raise up a core group of faithful men who will promote the truth in Zambia and southern Africa.
- Pray that God will direct us with respect to returning and continuing the teaching.

Thank you for your prayers and support for this trip. I trust God will multiply these truths in the hearts of many!

Sierra Leone LIFE OF CHRIST

From the Teachers:

The trip to Sierra Leone was another successful DM2 training session. The men and women (37 in all) were very excited about the study on the Panorama of the Life of Christ. It was wonderful to see so many of the same faces that were present last year for the Old Testament Panorama. Michael Turay is doing a great job on the ground preparing the leaders for the workshops, making Sierra Leone very friendly territory for teaching the true grace gospel and Biblical truths of the spiritual life. It is just so exciting to see the disciple-making vision being caught by the people and practiced. Michael now has several men he has helped train who are going out teaching other new groups the truth of God's Word. Please pray for the leaders and teachers in Sierra Leone, that they will continue to press forward, standing firm for the faith that has been entrusted to us all.

- Pastor Clay Ward

This was my first experience in seeing the disciple-making model that DM2 has developed, put to work in a foreign country. The Sierra Leone field director, Michael Turay, has done a tremendous job narrowing down the attendees to people who are fully dedicated to learning the Word of God for the purpose of sharing what they learn with others.

The Panorama of the Life of Christ, taught by Pastor Clay Ward, was received by those who attended with the utmost attention. This Panorama covers information about the 400 silent years from Malachi to Matthew and harmonizes the Gospels to give a clear picture of who Jesus Christ is and what he has done for all of us. The responses and the sacrifices made by those who came were very encouraging. Some even closed their businesses to attend. Others attended the workshop during the day while simultaneously working night shifts. These gave up good sleep for the entire week so they would not miss any of the sessions. DM2 is truly making disciples in Sierra Leone. I want to thank Bret Nazworth, Pastor Clay Ward, and Michael Turay for giving me the opportunity to be a part of this process and for the chance to see firsthand what making disciples from a Biblical perspective is all about.

Attendee Testimonies:

Your historical approach has solved most of my questions. You have challenged me to study more and more until Jesus comes. The DM2 workshop means a lot to me and my family. It has changed my life completely. The way I used to think because of my theological approach has completely changed. But thanks be to God, who has given us the spirit of humility and patience to learn, and as a result my life has changed. I now have a comprehensive, exhaustive, and reliable biblical foundation of the life of Christ.

- James Samuel Kanu

DM2 has been a blessing to me. This particular workshop has really helped me understand the history and culture of the Jewish people in relation to the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. Your approach has loosened many knots. God is so real and practical in His dealings with mankind.

- Raymond Beyeh

To the glory of God, I blessed the day I ever came into contact with this workshop. I've been preaching for over eight years, but with these eye opening presentations, I have come to understand that I never really started. The impact has changed my perspective about the former ways and has created hunger in me and a yearning to preach the truth.

- Pastor Nathaniel Lionel Coker

This workshop has impacted my life in a way that I could not have imagined. It makes me understand that every generation has the task of obeying or rejecting the gospel. And it helps me see spiritually, just as the blind man saw, Jesus as the Messiah. And thanks to God Almighty and the entire board of Disciple Makers Multiplied (DM2) for giving us the opportunity to be here and study about the gospel. May God bless you all.

- Hinga Tengbeh

Eternal Security is one of the key things that was unclear in my thinking and by the grace of God through this teaching it is really clear to me. I learned that through faith alone in Christ alone nothing can separate us from God's love.

Zambia ROMANS 1-8

Attendee Testimonies:

The most important thing I have learned is that salvation is to believe in Jesus Christ alone and in his death and resurrection. My plan is to go and make disciples, teaching them the real salvation which is to believe in Jesus Christ alone.

- Alex Mwangi

The most important thing I learned during this workshop is the true gospel, because Paul explained that he preached Jesus Christ who was crucified on the cross, buried, and resurrected from the dead. He is alive today; the tomb is empty. I didn't know the grace of God before. In light of 2 Timothy 2:2 I will be conducting seminars in towns and villages.

- Pastor Leonard Kapembra

I have learned salvation requires only faith in Christ alone. Salvation is secure forever by trusting in Christ alone. I know my new relationship to sin and also my new identity in Christ. I know to count on this new identity. I plan to teach these teachings in my church, starting with local leaders and extending it to leaders in other denominations. You must come back and continue the teaching. You are needed 100% for us. What you have done will go a long way.

- Pastor Chanda Davies

First and foremost, I am planning to go and correct my dear fellow servants of God on the true gospel, so that we will be preaching correctly, and similarly, to avoid differences (false gospels). Finally, I am going to preach to the lost people with confidence, and genuinely, this true gospel. I have been inspired today without fail and fear.

- Mutende Robert

I have learned that salvation doesn't come as a result of works but by simply believing in our Lord Jesus Christ who died on the cross and was resurrected on the third day.

- Jacqueline Singoma

From David Howard:

Our workshop with the Zambian pastors was both enlightening and interesting. This was our first trip to Zambia, as well as our first time to teach this group of pastors. Most were from Zambia, but some came from Tanzania, Congo and Zanzibar. Being our first workshop, the pastors did not know quite what to expect from us. We, too, were uncertain as to how they would react to Paul's teaching of grace. Our initial survey, which they completed on the first day, revealed the group had a wide range of views on what was required for salvation.

The first couple of days were pretty intense. There were a lot of questions about Paul's teachings in Romans 1-3 concerning how all of humanity is condemned in God's eyes. Those chapters show that salvation is obtained through faith alone in Christ alone, not through good works. Salvation is neither obtained, nor maintained, through good works. As we worked our way through Romans 4 and 5, you could really see "the light bulbs" turn on as most of the pastors came to understand the difference between justification, sanctification and glorification for the first time in their lives. By the time we got through Romans 6 and explained the sin nature as the "root" and actual sins as the "fruit", they were truly engaged and interacting with a lot of enthusiasm. By the end of the week, they had a new perspective gained from Romans. Most left clearly committed to re-teaching what they had learned.

It is truly amazing to see God's Word come alive to such a diverse group of pastors. Most of them had traveled many miles to be there. They were such great students. They paid close attention to our teaching for many hours a day in a hot room with very few breaks. It was inspiring to me to watch a group of leaders work through their own theological prejudice and come to terms with what God's word actually says. I came away convinced that DM2's curriculum and teaching methods really do work.

This is a teaching method that excels especially when there are alternating teachers. As the team rotates through the curriculum, alternatively reading applicable verses and explaining them through the teaching outline, it carefully and methodically garners the focus of the student and produces an interactive experience. It is hard to explain how effective this method is. It's something you really must experience to fully appreciate. So if you haven't yet signed up for a DM2 workshop, please do so! Sure, it's a lot of hard work and an intense few days, but you will come away a different person, prepared to be a "faithful man or woman" of 2 Timothy 2:2, who will be able to teach others also.
