Discipleship Mail:

2 Corinthians 3:2-3 says, "You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; being manifested that you are a letter of Christ, cared for by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts."

This month we'll open some mail and read from several individuals as they express their experiences in making disciple-makers.

We recently received this letter from the DM2 field director in Zambia, Pastor Joseph Chama:

Greetings,

I hope you are doing fine. Just so you know what is happening with us down in this place, we are excited to let you know that DM2 materials are now being taught in several churches. Some good reports are coming in and we are making every effort to encourage those being taught to go on to recruit more people for the sound teachings in order to reach every part of our country [Zambia].

We recently went to Nsumbo with Pastor Obed Simwinga of Lusaka to teach the DM2 teachings on Romans. It was quite exciting to see people respond and say, "Why is this so new to us?"

When are you all coming back for the workshop? What are the dates? We are praying for you.

With love,
Joseph Chama

DM2Mail & Letters

From Pastor Ismael in Bolivia,

Good afternoon,

How are you? I hope you are enjoying the company of family. I am thankful to God that a desire of my heart was [finally] fulfilled in allowing me to travel with you, teaching God's Word. Thank you for giving me that privilege. God has used you in a great way in our lives because we see Christ in you, teaching us not only with words but also by your actions. We thank God for your life and for your family that stands behind you so that you can go to all the world with the Gospel, according to the vision and mission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I want to follow your example. The Holy Spirit has convinced me that it is possible [even for me] to obey the Great Commission. I believe every day God gives me boldness in what I do. By His grace He makes me able and competent. And so thank you so much for all you have taught us. Thank you so much for your family who stands behind you, and thank you so much to all the believers who help you economically to go into all the world. Above all THANK YOU TO GOD. May it all be for HIS glory since we are workers in His hands working with Him and for Him.

Today and always may you enjoy all the blessings we have received through Christ.

Your brother Ismael

From Field Director, Roberto Morales, in Bolivia,

Dear brothers and sisters,

God made it possible [for us] to give a Romans 1-8 workshop in a church in Grajales Puebla, Mexico. This has been a new experience and a blessing.

God allowed Eliseo Noha and Marvin Rojas [from Bolivia], and Saul Arriaga of Mexico to be part of this workshop. The believers [in Mexico] were very excited about the teaching and the clear Gospel. They gave testimony that many of their doubts were cleared up. We saw people believe in Christ as their Savior, apart from any works, and become challenged to continue in the study. In the end it was very beautiful as the believers shared with each of us their experiences and blessings. Thank you for your prayers. It is uplifting for us to know there are believers who are praying for what God is doing in Bolivia. We find it a challenge every time there is an invitation to another country, yet every time we put it in the hands of the Lord, it becomes possible.

The workshop was attended by about 100 believers. Their punctuality was surprising, and even though the leaders said that possibly the believers would not be able to endure so many hours of sitting, surprisingly nobody moved until the workshop ended [each day]. Every evening after the workshop, a family would take us to their house so we could continue sharing what God says in the beautiful letter of Romans. The believers were very encouraged and God-willing we will return in September for Romans 9-16. We ask for your prayers so you can continue to be a part of all God is doing in [and through] Bolivia.

Note: Roberto and his team from Bolivia returned to Mexico at the end of August for the Romans 9-16 workshop. Despite the fact that Roberto is not well and that they do not have an abundance of finances, the Bolivian believers continue to trust the Lord to go wherever He leads!

From Alex Musser, Eastern Washington University,

This summer, I was blessed with the opportunity to be able to go down to Harlingen, Texas and help teach a Romans 1-8 workshop. It was a great time of fellowship with fellow believers as we went through the book of Romans verse by verse. The conference was a youth conference and was filled with many different teenagers and adults from all across the country. During the mornings and days we would go through Romans and the workbooks. During the nights, we would head out to one of the host family's house where we would have dinner and participate in activities such as basketball, soccer, or just talking with one another. Overall it was a great experience and it was a blessing to see many people that were understanding crucial biblical concepts such as justification and sanctification. It was also very beneficial to me in helping me understand more things about the sanctification process, such as our new position in Christ, walking by faith through Christ's power and much more! Hopefully the Lord will use this conference to bring many more to Him and to make many disciples faithful to his Word and the great commission!

In Christ,
Alex Musser

From Cody Hughes, Howard Payne University,

Romans 1:16: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

This week has been an amazing time of truth, learning, fellowship, and growth. At the DM2 Romans Youth Conference, we ventured through Romans, chapters 1-8, verse by verse by verse. We learned that no matter what type of sinner you are, we are all in need of a Savior (Romans 3:23), Jesus Christ who died for the sins of the world (1 Corinthians 15:3-4). We learned how the Gospel is not about us or what we do, but about Jesus Christ and what He has done for us. We learned about justification, sanctification, and glorification.

Romans 3:28 says "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law." We learned that the law is a mechanism God uses to show us our need for a solution to our sin problem (Romans 3:19). Justification, or being declared right before God, happens when a person believes in Jesus Christ alone for salvation. (Romans 4:5)

Furthermore, as a result of salvation, we learned how to live the Christian life and that it is not a life lived by self-effort, but a life lived by faith in a God who desires to be actively involved in the life of every believer. Romans 8:5-6 says, "For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace."

We learned the Christians relationship to sin - that we are indeed dead to it and that even though the sin nature is not eradicated, it is rendered powerless over us

(Romans 6:11); and as a result of counting on this fact, we are to by faith, present the members of our bodies as instruments of righteousness to God.

We learned that the believer is safe and secure in Christ forever and that glorification is a guarantee to all those in Christ. Romans 8:1 says, "Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

There is so much more to say and it's amazing how much Romans has taught me. Overall though, it was amazing to see that the grace of God is sufficient. This week was encouraging to me and I am very sad it is over; however, I look forward to keeping in touch with all of you.

God bless all of you!

From Starr D'Auria, LeTourneau University,

This last week was honestly the best week out of my whole year! It was great to study the Women of the Word and Romans with you all! I cannot express how grateful I am to the teachers, church members, and people who made these conferences possible. You all are part of my family, and I thank God for you!

Studying God's Word was rejuvenating. It was great to study how as believers we do not have to be controlled by our sin nature anymore because we are dead to our sin nature. Studying how the Holy Spirit who lives inside of us gives us His power to overcome the desires of the flesh was also a really great reminder. All in all, it was great to see how God provided for all our needs and how He protected and worked through these conferences!
