Here at DM2 we've had a great start to the new year.

At 3D Training Center, January was filled with four classes: James, Proverbs, Second Peter, and Colossians. Following are some observations from our 2 Peter guest speaker, David Howard (a founding member of DM2):

For me, as a board member, it is so helpful to come see the school in action. Starting something like this is difficult, but the foundation I am seeing laid for the future is sound. I see the 3DTC program as a natural extension of DM2. The next wave of "DM2ers" will most likely come out of 3DTC. Most organizations die because they don't want to build into or hand the work off to the next generation. God is clearly working the 3D Training Center into DM2's original vision and plan to strengthen, expand, and provide disciple-makers for the future.

To see the staff functioning without Bret present (he was in Bolivia) was a testimony to the principle of "disciple makers making other disciple makers."

BOLIVIA MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

January 19-29 found Bret and Wanda traveling to Bolivia for a special conference for missionaries and missionary candidates. As the main speaker, Bret taught pastors, leaders, missionaries, and future mission candidates the biblical principles of discipleship and Wanda shared with the ladies.

There was a wide-open door, and the teaching was received with heartfelt conviction and passion. The remarkable aspect of the conference was that many of the candidates were from diverse ethnic groups in Bolivia. They had a burning desire for their own people to hear and believe a clear gospel message. Having the advantage of already speaking their native tongue and understanding their own culture, they were energized to finish their studies and head back out to their various native locations throughout the country of Bolivia.

Amazingly, despite the social unrest across the country, resulting in many roads and highways being cut off due to roadblocks, the teaching went forward, uninhibited by the difficulties. We believe God opened a door for the truth to be taught and gave great grace in answer to your prayers.

In other news, at the time of this writing, Joe Aguilar is in Mexico doing a workshop together with two DM2 pastors from Bolivia: Juan Iriarte and Roberto Morales. And on January 31 CC3D in Bolivia started their second year of studies with a full house of new students.
